

Country: PakistanGraduation: Higher Secondary (School) Certificate / Intermediate (Examination) Certificate (or certificate replacement certificate)Comment: Applicants from Pakistan often do not present official secondary school leaving certificates, but only provisional certificates or overviews of subjects and grades (Result Card, Marks Certificate, Mark Sheet, etc.). These can be recognized as proof of university entrance qualification if they clearly show that the secondary school qualification has been acquired.Specification: Group: Science / Pre-Engineering / Pre-MedicalAssessment of school leaving certificate

PAK-BV03

Additional conditions.

Higher Secondary (School) Certificate / Intermediate (Examination) Certificate (or certificate replacement certificate)

The certificate must show an overall grade of at least 50% of the maximum grade.

Group: Science / Pre-Engineering / Pre-Medical

Direct access (subject-oriented)

for the previous subject area and related subjects

The year of study to be proven must have been completed at a recognized university in a scientific course of study.

with proof of 1 successful academic year(s)

to all universities

Assessment test/preparatory college (subject-oriented) for the focus courses to which the disciplines of medicine, natural sciences and technology are assigned

to all universities